Listen Up!
Lesson One
James 1:19a NCV
Age 4 - Kindergarten

Sing This!

When the rocks cry out
and the mountains shout,
All creation sings proclaiming your glory.

When the rocks cry out
and the mountains shout,
All creation sings it's song of praise!

"Always be willing to listen and slow to speak. Do not become angry easily because anger will not help you live the right kind of life. So put out of your life every evil thing. Then, in gentleness, accept God's teaching. Do what God's teaching says." James 1:19 – 22.

When the rocks cry out
and the mountains shout,
All creation sings proclaiming your glory.

Picture This!

Jesus had two special friends. They were sisters. One of the sisters was named Martha, and the other sister was named Mary. One day, Jesus came to visit them. Martha was worried the house wasn't clean enough. So Martha scrubbed and dusted and mopped and cleaned and worked very hard to make the house look nice for Jesus. "Where is Mary?" she thought. "Do I have to do all the work alone? Do I have to fix all the food by myself?" Martha went to find her sister, Mary. And guess where she found her? Mary was sitting at Jesus' feet! Mary was listening to Jesus teach. Martha couldn't believe it. Here she was, being so busy, and her sister, Mary, was just sitting with Jesus! Martha looked at Jesus and said, "Don't you care that my sister is making me do all the work?"

Jesus said, "Martha, don't worry about so many things. You're filling your time being busy, but your sister knows only one thing is important. Mary chose the better way."
